Who told you they replaced it with a new light fixture?

They replaced it with nothing...

Did you have any inspector come here or did you believe whatever they said to you?

Some things you will be asked in court...

Take a look at the NOT fixture they left.

You need to be fired.

Is that a bare bulb or a light fixture?

Who is lying you, them, or both of you?

Is that a light fixture, but NO ONE ever came here to investigate, but you corrupt foul person just does what the landlord says ?

So, in court we will ask you how do you know those things were done?

Will you tell the truth and say because they told me so?

So, why close an investigation when you NEVER sent ANYONE to the site of the problem?

What does Michigan law say, do you know?

Case closed, landlord said nothing happened...

Everything that I complained about is STILL here.

Let's go back to you on the witness stand...

The question is:

Did you send an investigator into the apartment I live in?

If you can tell the truth you would say NO

Then how did you close your investigation?

It is NOT a real investigation when the person who complained is NOT included in anything you did.
